Ladies have offer'd me places three,
 And bid me choose which I had rather;
 But this was the answer they got from me,
 Dear Ma'am only think of my Father:
 What would he do, were Jane with you
 Forgetting the duty he taught her?
 How would he grieve, if the Cot I should leave,
 For I am his only Daughter.

William, who bought with the field below,
 The three pretty Cows of old Mary,
 Shortly will want, (for he told me so,)
 A Wife to look after the dairy;
 He lives so near my Father dear,
 'Tis only just over the water:
 Should he ask me to go, sure I cannot say No.
 Tho' I am his only Daughter.
